CHAPTER 13 BANKRUPTCY

THEODORE LENALL COPELAND

Case No. 08-45008-PBS

Debtor

DEBTOR'S RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO QUASH SUBPOENA

COMES NOW the Debtor, Theodore L. Copeland, Pro Se, in response to the MOTION TO QUASH SUBPOENA filed by Creditor, Diversified Financial, Inc. Debtor hereby objects to Creditor's motion.

The motion filed by Creditor is seeking to quash the Sprint cell phone records request based on the Creditor's allegations that Martin Burns, Debtor's Counsel in State Court lawsuit, is covertly trying to obtain evidence through the Bankruptcy Court instead of the Pierce County Court.

Creditor's allegations are incorrect. The issuance of the Bankruptcy Court Subpoena was requested by the Debtor pro se and not by Mr. Burns. See the subpoena request documents attached hereto as Exhibit A

1 The Debtor hereby respectfully request that this court denies Creditor's motion.

3 I. REASON FOR THE SUBPOENA

4 There are two very different versions of how the parties in this matter came
5 involved with each other and what led the Debtor to file a bankruptcy petition on October
6 1, 2008.

7 The Debtor received some calls from the Creditor from a blocked number. Debtor
8 believes that the calls came from Emeil Kandi's Cell phone no. (253) 405-6844. Debtor
9 has requested the Sprint phone records to further prove his version of the story and to 10 show that Creditor has all along acted with malice to deliberately violate the Bankruptcy
11 automatic stay.

12
13 A. CREIDTOR'S VERSION-HONEST BUSINESSMAN WHO PUCHASED
A REAL ESTATE CONTRACT.

14 Creditor's version is that during a normal course of business he happened upon 15 subject property and became interested in purchasing it. There is no mention of being 16 contacted by the Debtor for the purpose of saving the property from foreclosure. Below
17 is an excerpt from the Declaration of Emiel Kandi in Support of Summary Judgment
18 dated May 10, 2009:

20 "5. Prior to purchasing the real estate contract, I had exactly one conversation with 21 Plaintiff, in which I informed him that I was interested in purchasing the real estate contract held by Martha Sutherland, and would not help him refinance his contract.

22 6. I have never met Plaintiff in person. No loan documents or other loan origination
23 documents were completed by Plaintiff. I never made any promises or representations that I
24 would loan Plaintiff money, or assist him with his financial troubles."

OPPOISITION TO MOTION

2 B. DEBTOR'S VERSION- VICTIM OF A FORECLOSURE RESCUE SCHEME

3 Contrary to Creditor's sworn statements, Debtor contacted Creditor for the 4 purpose of avoiding a pending foreclosure. See Declaration of Theodore L. Copeland in 5 opposition to motion to quash subpoena. Debtor enlisted the help of Donna Canty to help
6 find lender, Emiel Kandi, see the Declaration of Donna Canty, which is attached hereto
7 as Exhibit B.

8 After reviewing relevant documents faxed to him by Debtor and Ms. Canty, and 9 multiple telephone conversations with Debtor and Ms. Canty, Creditor Emiel kandi,
10 assured Debtor that he would give him a loan to avoid the pending foreclosure. The 11 conversations between Debtor and Creditor constitute a verbal contract. Creditor had a 12 fiduciary obligation to the Debtor.

13 Creditor has asserted that no loan documents were prepared. For this alleged 14 foreclosure rescue scheme to work loan documents were not necessary. Creditor only 15 needed the Debtor to believe that he was getting a loan and it was being worked on.

16 II. CONCLUSION

17 Creditor, Emeil Kandi, had an fiduciary obligation to the Debtor and was well
18 aware that Debtor had filed an voluntary Bankruptcy petition, despite all this Mr. Kandi
19 and his lawyer has relentlessly tried to obtain Debtor's property at all cost. This Court
20 should not allow this egregious conduct. Creditor's grounds for quashing the subpoena
21 have no basis. Debtor respectfully requests that Creditor's motion be denied and that 22 Sprint be ordered to comply with the subpoena.

23 DATED this 28th day of August, 2009.

Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Subdivisions (c), (d), and (e), as amended on December 1, 2007, made applicable in cases under the Bankruptcy Code by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure:

(c) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the issuing court for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the issuing court must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to travel more than 100 miles from where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person — except that, subject to Rule 45(c)(3)(B)(iii), the person may be commanded to attend a trial by traveling from any such place within the state where the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the issuing court may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party; or

(iii) a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) Contempt.

The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(ii).

Your Case Number: 0845008PBS
Sprint Case Number: 2009-151877

Dear Theodore Copeland,

Thank you for your recent request for customer records or other information. This letter is our initial response to that legal demand. Because your legal demand does not allow reasonable time for compliance and/or due to the volume of requests, your subpoena will be processed approximately twenty-one (21) calendar days from the date of receipt.

Please be advised that we object to any definition or instruction that purports to expand our obligation to produce documents other than customer calling records or subscriber information as kept in the usual course of business. To the extent that other electronically stored information exists regarding a customer's use of our services, it is not reasonably accessible due to undue burden or cost and we therefore object to its production.

To the extent you request disclosure of stored communications or content (text messages, voicemail messages, picture mail, web traffic or e-mail); the law prohibits a service provider from disclosing such information to any person. See 18 U.S.C. § 2702(a).

If your subpoena involves the records of a residential customer in California and you did not include the notarized written consent of the customer, your request is ineffective and will not be fulfilled. See California Public Utility Code § 2891; California Rule of Civil Procedure § 1985.3. No further notice will be sent.

Our office will forward to you a fee authorization form with estimated costs of production. Completion of the fee authorization is a pre-condition to the release of records in instances where the recovery of reasonable fees is allowed. If we do not receive a response from you by 08/12/09, this matter will be considered closed. A new legal demand will have to be issued for the records to be produced at a later date.

Finally, if an appearance is necessary, please call our Trial Services Group at (913) 315-8775 for details.

Sincerely,

DECLARATION OF DONNA CANTY

I, Donna Canty, hereby declare the following is true and accurate under the penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington.

1. I previously worked as a mortgage loan officer.

2. I have worked with Theodore Lenall Copeland in the past and he approached me with regard to getting a loan to cure the default or otherwise refinance his property that he had purchased on a real estate contract from Martha Sutherland. When I look at Mr. Copeland's credit I determined that it was not sufficient to obtain a traditional loan product in time to help him so I referred him to Villa Mortgage as I knew Emiel Kandi made hard money loans. I sent Mr. Copeland to Mr. Kandi's office in search of a loan and not to have Mr. Kandi to purchase the Real Estate Contract and foreclose on Mr. Copeland.

3. I did make calls to Mr. Kandi's office and asked about the status of the loan and to ask Mr. Kandi to contact Mr. Copeland. I was never told that a loan would not be place in time and I was never told by Mr. Kandi or anyone at his office that Mr. Kandi was attempting to acquire the rights in the Real Estate Contract. I was lead to believe that Mr. Copeland's loan was in progress. I would relay such information to Mr. Copeland. Mr. Kandi's actions were a complete surprise and were inconsistent with all prior conversations.

Dated this 29 day of May, 2009 at Tacoma, Washington.

Debtor

DECLARATION OF THEODORE
L. COPELAND IN OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO QUASH
SUBPOENA

I, Theodore L. Copeland, being first duly sworn upon oath, depose and say:

That I am over the age of 21 years, am the Debtor in the above captioned action, and am competent to testify to the matters stated herein.

Early in the month of September 2008, I contacted a loan officer I know, Donna Canty, for assistant in helping me find a lender that did non-conforming loans with quick closing. I was faced with a foreclosure action and I needed a lender who could close quickly. Mrs. Canty referred me to the Creditor, Emiel Kandi who worked at Villa Mortgage LLC.

At the request of Mr. Kandi and with Mrs. Canty help we faxed all my house information, my credit report, and my financial information to Mr. Kandi so that he could make a determination as to whether he would do a home loan for me.

2 On September 25, 2008, Mr. Kandi called me to discuss the possible loan that he was
3 considering giving me. He asked me some questions including my ability to repay the loan.
4 After I answered all of his questions, Mr. Kandi told me that he would fund the loan for me.
5 Mr. Kandi told me that he was going to come by to see my house.

6 Mr. Kandi called me three other times that day from his car. He was having trouble
7 finding my address. I guided Mr. Kandi to my house and stayed on the phone with him until I
8 saw him pull up to my house. I assumed Mr. Kandi was going to come in but he didn't.

9 While I was discussing my loan with Mr. Kandi he did explain to me that for my 10 situation it would probably work best if he purchase my contract from Mrs. Sutherland and 11 then work out a contract with me for the repayment of the loan. I did not object to this. I had no
12 Ideal Mr. Kandi did not plan to keep his word.

13 As my cure date drew near it became very difficult for me to reach Mr. Kandi to get 14 details on the loan. When I did reach him, he was unable to give me details because each time
15 he told me that he was on the other line and he would call me right back, but he never did. I
16 also had Donna Canty attempt to call Mr. Kandi as well. Her calls got through to Mr. Kandi but 17 no details would be disclosed to her. He would tell her that he would call me, but it never did.
18 I left several messages on Mr. Kandi's voice mail including a message that I would have to file
19 bankruptcy if he did not return my call.

20 On October 1, 2008, prior to my time to cure had expired, I filed for bankruptcy.
21 Unbeknownst to me, Mr. Kandi prematurely cancelled my interest in the real estate contract
22 and sold my house to his mother on October 1st.

1 On October 6 2008, Mr. Kandi told me that he foreclosed on my property and that there was
2 nothing that I could do about it. I informed him that I filed Ch. 13. He told me that he would
3 look into it. I also informed him that I hand delivered a copy of my bankruptcy filing to his
4 home address earlier that day and left it with the adult person that answered the door.

5 Because of Mr. Kandi's refusal to reverse his mistake and return my property I had no
6 choice but to retain a lawyer to return my title back. At first Mr. Kandi refused service of our 7 summons and complaint to plan a ploy to have my lawyer disqualified.

8 After Mr. Kandi finally accepted service of our summons and complaint He called my 9 lawyer, Martin Burns, and told him that he did not know who I was and that he had never heard
10 of me. He also told my lawyer that he would pay me $10,000 to walk away from my house and 11 drop the suit.

12 I reviewed my phone records to prove that Mr. Kandi had fiduciary relationship with 13 me. I have attached my cell phone records hereto as Exhibit A. Upon examining my phone bill
14 I noticed that a few of the calls that Mr. Kandi made to me were from a blocked number. These 15 calls were made during the time that he called me in route to my house. I believed that Mr.
16 Kandi called me from his cell phone (253-405-6844). I prepared a subpoena to request Mr.
17 Kandi's cell phone records and had it signed by the U.S. Bankruptcy Clerk. I then had Rachael
18 Rose fax the subpoena to Sprint subpoena compliance department.
